

THE JOHNSENIOR

1926

AS COLLECTED BY
THE SENIOR CLASS
OF THE
JOHNSON COUNTY TRAINING SCHOOL
JOHNSON, IOWA

Foreword

The Senior Class of '26 has in mind to go forward. It believes in progress. So great is this inclination toward progress that it has decided to publish an annual with the help of the Principal, Professor A. J. Taylor. This is the first annual to be published since the Johnston County Training School has been in existence and it is our desire that the class of '27 will hold up the banner and let the annual become better year by year.

As a class, we have tried to exhibit to others the character, culture, and tastes of our class members, and we hope it will cause cooperation to exist between faculty, students, parents, alumni and friends.

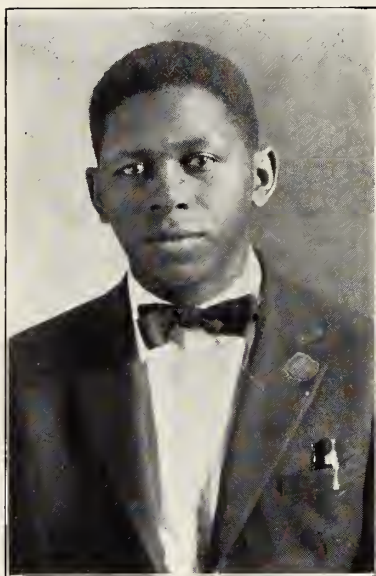

Further, we have tried to cooperate with our teachers and schoolmates, because cooperation leads to success, and it is the desire of the class of '26 to be successful in every movement of importance.

The ideal of Johnston County Training School is to develop men and women who are calm, self-controlled, self-directed, and who get their greatest pleasure from the finer and higher things of life.

The ideal of the Senior Class is to be men and women of the highest rank, and in all undertakings striving to be preeminent.

Witty Sayings of '26

If you can't take a joke you are a crab; only a crab gets sore at a joke.

✿ ✿ ✿

"Oh, I am in such a perspiration!" cried one of the Junior girls, as she fanned herself with her hat.

English Teacher: "I shall never again hear such an expression," said the English Teacher. "Kindly remember that oxen sweat, men perspire, but young ladies glow."

✿ ✿ ✿

M. E. W.: I never like to take part in plays; it make me think I am making a fool of myself.

✿ ✿ ✿

Teacher: Why are you always late to class?

C. T. U.: Because of a sign I have to pass on my way here.

Teacher: What has that to do with it?

C. T. U.: Why it says, "School Ahead—Go Slow!"

✿ ✿ ✿

Teacher: What is space?

J. I. A.: I can't think of it just now, but I certainly have it in my head.

✿ ✿ ✿

Miss Rowan: I am dismissing you ten minutes early today. Please go out quietly so as not to wake the Freshman class.

✿ ✿ ✿

R. H.: I will slap you to your mother.

P. B.: And I will eat too.

✿ ✿ ✿

Miss Rowan: What is the plural of cat?

E. M.: Kittens.

✿ ✿ ✿

L. H. M.: What have you been eating lately—syrup or molasses?

A. L.: Why? Is it on my mouth?

✿ ✿ ✿

B. H. J. (To a small child): Don't ever do anything that you can't do in public.

Child: I am so glad, I wont have to take another bath then.

✿ ✿ ✿

M. J.: Here comes old worsom box.

D. S.: Well, what Y' all laffing bout for?
